

Subject: Euro Cup Viewing / Summer Happy Hour

Dear Coffee Friends,

Good morning and happy Friday. I hope all are enjoying the market volatility before the summer doldrums kick in.

Given this is my first year in Switzerland, I have taken on the unofficial duty of trying to set up a summer get together for coffee friends in the greater Geneva/Lausanne area. This is NOT a Sucafina event but rather a personal invitation for friends to get together, have a few drinks and watch a Euro semi-final game. Therefore, if you see any organization/group/friend who is not on my list, please feel free to forward this on. The only limitation I would ask is for some connection to the coffee industry (even a faint one).

We have reserved space for 50 people at The Club House in Geneva (www.theclubhouse.ch) for July 7th, which is the date of the second semi-final game. There is a minimum which I will guarantee. The variable cost will be 40 CHF/person which includes finger foods and two adult beverages. Drinks past that would be a normal cash bar and will be managed on the honor system.

If you and/or people from your organizations can join, it would be a pleasure to see everyone in Switzerland as I see most everyone only in conferences on a different continent. While I don't need a specific head count (the cost is purely variable), if you can each give me an idea of head count from your groups closer to the event, it would be appreciated. That way if we see there is more interest than 50 people, we can try to reserve more space. They said that would be fine as long as we did it far enough in advance. So the sooner everyone can let me know, the better.

Thanks and wishing all a well-earned weekend in advance.

take care,

Dave
